- Robert Shoop St. James', Midvale

Mandate

The ministry of a deacon is to represent Christ and his Church in the world, particularly as a servant of those in need; and to assist bishops and priests in the proclamation of the Gospel and the administration of the sacraments.

Goals

To have at least one deacon at every parish within the diocese, with multiple deacons in the larger parishes. We are working with the Commission on Ministry to help people from the congregations of Latinos, South Sudanese and Native Americans to discern Diaconal ministries.

To continue ongoing training / education for the in-place Deacons.

Action items

The Tuttle School for Discipleship and Ministry is in full swing. Winter / Spring of 2020 focused on the Old Testament, Awareness, Discernment, the BCP and the Prophetic voice. Significant adjustments have been required due to the COVID-19 pandemic. We continue to utilize ZOOM as a tool for monthly classes, breakout sessions, and gatherings for study groups. As of this writing there are 15 students active. This fall the focus is on the New Testament, Interfaith Dialog, Servant in the liturgy and homiletics. The curriculum being used is from the IONA Collaborative from the Seminary of the Southwest.

Analysis of action

We continue to meet with the Bishop regularly to discuss our ministries and work towards a broader understanding of the Diaconate throughout the Diocese.

From the Tuttle School, the students are very engaged and continue to invest of themselves.

Findings and conclusions

The ministries of the current deacons are functioning and we provide service to our parishes and the greater world. Expansion of that ministry can only serve to aid in the outreach of the diocese.

Recommendations: No action from convention is required at this time.

Statement of how the group's work fits into the mission strategy of the Diocese

The very nature of the diaconal ministry projects the mission of the church in the world. We serve our parishes and are one of the faces of the Episcopal church in the secular world. Expansion of that ministry will enhance that ability.

Submitted respectfully,

The Ven, Robert Shoop, Archdeacon
